Re: Case No.: 23-cv-09648-JGLC-GWC Goodman v the City of New York et al

January 26, 2024

Dear Judge Gorenstein,

1. On January 23, 2024, I filed an affidavit that I understood to be proof of service upon defendant Elon Musk, (Dkt. 44). The clerks entered it as “returned unexecuted.”

2. On January 24, 2024, the clerk’s office recorded, “Document filed by Jason Goodman. (sc) Modified on 1/24/2024 (rdz).” I do not know what the specific modification was or why it was necessary, but the docket reflects this summons was returned unexecuted.

3. To eliminate confusion regarding execution of service, if it should please the Court and be deemed necessary, I respectfully request permission to serve Mr. Musk by alternate means pursuant to FRCP Rule 4(f)(3) which provides for service by other means not prohibited by international agreement, as the court orders.

4. Defendant Musk is considered to be one of the wealthiest individuals on Earth. He is the principal of numerous multi-billion-dollar companies including Defendant X Corp.

5. Musk is an unusually frequent international traveler. He has access to personal private airplanes, automobiles, and sea faring vessels. Serving him poses unique challenges as compared to nearly any other individual.

6. Thanks in part to technologies owned by companies he controls, wherever Musk goes, he remains in communication with over one hundred sixty million people on X.com. The website formerly known as Twitter that is controlled by defendant X Corp which Musk famously purchased and took private control of in October 2022, (<https://www.nytimes.com/2022/10/27/technology/elon-musk-twitter-deal-complete.html>).

7. Within weeks of acquiring the company, Musk discovered former FBI general counsel James Baker (“Baker”) was a holdover employed as Deputy General Counsel at X Corp. Musk discovered Baker was obstructing orders to release Twitter company records related to interactions with the FBI and other government agencies. This topic has become the subject of public controversy and Congressional investigations. (<http://judiciary.house.gov/committee-activity/hearings/hearing-weaponization-federal-government-4>).

8. Baker’s termination was announced by Musk on December 6, and Musk’s personal attorney Alex Spiro, (“Spiro”) briefly took over legal matters for the company.

(<https://www.nytimes.com/2022/12/13/technology/elon-musk-twitter-shakeup.html>).

9. Spiro is frequently mentioned in news articles, interviews, books and other media as Musk’s personal attorney and close advisor. According to the New York Times and other primary sources, Spiro was integrally involved with many aspects of the purchase and reorganization of Twitter as it became X Corp.

10. This background is relevant because on or around November 3, 2023, I sent a request for a waiver of service to Spiro. (EXHIBIT A)

11. I followed up by telephone and had email communications with Spiro’s associate, Anthony Staltari, (“Staltari”). After reviewing the lawsuit and declining to grant a waiver of service, Staltari informed me via email, “Please be advised that Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP is not representing Mr. Musk in this matter.” (EXHIBIT B)

12. On December 8, 2023, after a telephone conference with counsel for defendant X Corp, Mr. Trujillo-Jamison informed me via email, “we are not authorized to waive service for Mr. Musk.” (EXHIBIT C)

13. I respectfully request the Court issue an order granting permission to serve defendant Musk via social media pursuant to FRCP Rule 4(f)(3) and the proposed order attached hereto as (EXHIBIT D).

Respectfully submitted,

Jason Goodman

Goodman v City of New York et al Request for waiver of service

To: Alex Spiro

Sent - truth@c...dsourcethetruth.org November 3, 2023, 8:55AM

Mr. Spiro,

Please see attached complaint and request for waiver of service. X Corp is a named defendant in this action filed October 31, 2023 as well. If you are not the appropriate party to request waiver of service for the corporate defendant, please advise who that would be.

Thank you.

AO 198 (Rev. 01/09) Notice of a Lawsuit and Request to Waive Service of a Summons

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

for the Southern District of New York

Jason Goodman	)
Plaintiff	)
v.	)	Civil Action No. 1:23-cv-09648
City of New York, NYPD, Elon Musk, X Corp, et al	)
Defendant	)

NOTICE OF A LAWSUIT AND REQUEST TO WAIVE SERVICE OF A SUMMONS

To: Elon Musk

(Name of the defendant or - if the defendant is a corporation, partnership, or association - an officer or agent authorized to receive service)

Why are you getting this?

A lawsuit has been filed against you, or the entity you represent, in this court under the number shown above. A copy of the complaint is attached.

This is not a summons, or an official notice from the court. It is a request that, to avoid expenses, you waive formal service of a summons by signing and returning the enclosed waiver. To avoid these expenses, you must return the signed waiver within 30 days (give at least 30 days, or at least 60 days if the defendant is outside any judicial district of the United States) from the date shown below, which is the date this notice was sent. Two copies of the waiver form are enclosed, along with a stamped, self-addressed envelope or other prepaid means for returning one copy. You may keep the other copy.

What happens next?

If you return the signed waiver, I will file it with the court. The action will then proceed as if you had been served on the date the waiver is filed, but no summons will be served on you and you will have 60 days from the date this notice is sent (see the date below) to answer the complaint (or 90 days if this notice is sent to you outside any judicial district of the United States).

If you do not return the signed waiver within the time indicated, I will arrange to have the summons and complaint served on you. And I will ask the court to require you, or the entity you represent, to pay the expenses of making service.

Please read the enclosed statement about the duty to avoid unnecessary expenses.

I certify that this request is being sent to you on the date below.

Mr. Staltari,

I am following up regarding our phone call last week. I have not heard a response from Mr. Spiro or you. To reiterate, I am trying to serve your firm's client Elon Musk in the attached matter Goodman v the City of New York et al. I can send a process server back over to your office, or if you prefer, please ask Mr. Spiro to complete the request for waiver of service also attached. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.
